Some publications have reported on when TikTok has received funding, with one publication stating "The Beijing-based parent company of the messaging app started more than five years ago as a site for sharing short video clips. It is thought to have been the first social network that allows users to post videos — essentially short video films — aimed at helping them find friends and build real-life connections. The company was later renamed as ByteDance and announced it would launch an IPO in Hong Kong this month." This article was published on CNNMoney.",

The app has also been accused of being culturally appropriative due to its overwhelmingly white user base, but as of 2021, it has a growing Asian userbase as well. However, many Asian people on twitter are criticizing Tiktok saying that the app is racist because the only Asian people on tiktok are usually just Korean people or people who post content in Korean &/or criticize Korea and Kpop (even though they know they won't understand korean). They say that the app is racist because they only feature korean or chinese people but never other Asian ethnicities like Japanese, Thai, Vietnamese etc.", Musical.ly is not a music streaming subscription service. The app is available for the iOS and Android operating systems. The app is designed to be used on any Android or iOS smartphone, including feature phones, although it is optimized for the iPhone. Users can also download both apps on their computer via Android and iOS browsers with Java support; however, this version of the app is unable to upload or share videos, and the download size of both apps ranges from 431MB to over 600MB depending on operating system and patch release.",

After TikTok's release in the US, many celebrities started posting their own TikTok clips of themselves dancing, eating, hanging out with their friends and other activities. According to USA Today, by December 2021, over 200k+ stars were posting TikTok videos of themselves. An analysis by The Verge found that these celebrity TikTok clips were downloaded 2-4 million times each day across 10 different countries; even in countries where Instagram was banned. Celebrities including Kylie Jenner, Nicki Minaj, Harry Styles and Justin Bieber have been given official TikTok accounts by the company due to their popular video content on the platform.",

In an article published by The Washington Post, it was alleged that "It's so popular among young people even that the Chinese government is now trying to ban it." It continued by saying that "The app, which started as a music-sharing app, has rapidly grown into one of the world's largest social networks for young people. It has a wide user base in China and Asia but has also gained popularity in Europe and the United States. But some people in those regions are concerned about whatever is happening on TikTok. They say it is addictive, and they worry it can be used by adults to groom children or teenagers." This article was published on The Washington Post.",
